THE FAMILY-run King's Ferry coach company is set to roll out new services nationwide after being bought out for £8 million by National Express.

The Twydale-based business said the new owners would take the firm "onwards and upwards" after announcing the sale on Monday.

National Express has been looking for a way into London's lucrative commuter market since April.

The worldwide travel giant decided to buy King's Ferry for its expertise in this area, as the coach company transports 1,300 passengers a day into the capital.

Its commuter service operates from 160 pick-up points across Medway, stopping at 25 locations in London.

With the opening of the new Ebbsfleet International station next Monday, there will be increased demand for travel to and from the station to London and throughout the South East.

It is also thought the Connections arm of King's Ferry, which books coach services across Europe, is another area which appealed to National Express and has been earmarked for investment.

Managing director Steve O'Neill, son of King's Ferry founder Peter, said: "We're expecting the company to grow further as part of National Express."

"It's likely with future investment the brand will appear elsewhere in the county, as well as across the South East and the rest of the country."

"The sale is completely positive. The company will stay as King's Ferry and there will be no job losses."

"All the management team, including myself, will take up positions with National Express to ensure the company goes onwards and upwards."

'Charming rebel' celebrated by internet group

EXCLUSIVE

BY SIMON ROBINSON

REBEL MP Bob Marshall Andrews has been hailed "a national treasure" by an online appreciation group set up in his honour.

The veteran Medway MP and bar-rister was lauded in the 'Bob Marshall Andrews is Excellent' group on social networking site Facebook.

At the time of going to press that glowing endorsement had been backed by 22 members in less than a week.

The group's creator Mark Donne wrote of his hero: "Bob Marshall Andrews is I'm afraid, a national treasure – a truly independently minded beacon in a Parliamentary Labour Party teeming with bovine careerists."

"Put simply, BMA is charm, rebellion, indifference and fine alcohol thirst incarnate."

The 63-year-old MP, who was shown the online group by his personal assistant, was stunned at first by the concept of Facebook and later by the group's praise.

He said: Facebook took me by surprise. I thought, at first, someone was offering me a facelift, which would not be a bad idea.

"No doubt this Facebook site will have a very small membership but I thank those who have contributed for their kind thoughts."

Mr Marshall Andrews has developed a reputation as a Labour rebel during his 10 years as MP for Medway and is often regarded as an irritant to the front bench.

This streak was given national coverage on election night in 2005 when Mr Marshall Andrews prematurely announced his own defeat on television before the defeat was confirmed, describing it as "the only good news Mr Blair will get tonight".

He went on to hold the seat by just 213 votes.

CHARMING: Bob Marshall Andrews has a fan club on social networking site Facebook

The MP went on to court controversy later that year in the House of Commons.

Spotted talking to rival Conservative MPs, Labour MPs Barry Sheerman and Jim Dowd remonstrated with him.

As the scuffle heightened Mr Marshall Andrews was said to have said of Dowd 'Here's another faggot' however the MP insists he shouted 'faccio', an Italian word meaning a menial assistant.

These high-profile incidents, as well as appearances on satirical quiz show Have I Got News For You, have seen his popularity rise both inside and outside Westminster.

One Facebook member summed up the group's feelings towards the MP, who plans to retire at the next election, by writing: "Bob, if you're out there, don't abandon us! Your waifs need you."

Another wrote: "I once sat next to the legend that is Bob Marshall Andrews on the tube not long after the 2005 election."

"He was great and we had a good chat about it until I had to get off the tube. Great man."

On the run teenager caught by police

A TEENAGE prisoner who went on the run after breaking out of a people carrier in Rochester was picked up later the same day in London.

The 14-year-old boy jumped out of the silver Peugeot's front passenger seat in Cookham Wood Road on November 2 and escaped.

The teenager was eventually picked up by Met police officers near his home in Camden, north London, and appeared before magistrates charged with breaking out of custody.

Kelly criticised for having no sex appeal

ACID-tongued Strictly Come Dancing judge Arlene Phillips has branded Rochester-born beauty Kelly Brook as lacking in sex appeal.

Arlene spoke to a national newspaper about the actress and model, who lives with Hollywood star Billy Zane near Maidstone.

The choreographer, dubbed "The Queen of Mean" for her withering put downs, said: "Kelly is like a giggling six-year-old in a woman's body."

Rik agrees to stop singing and marry

HEAVYWEIGHT singer Rik Waller is to quit music to marry his pagan girlfriend.

They met when pink-haired goth Kelly Bliss stormed on to the stage from an audience of just 10 during a show in Weymouth.

She has agreed to the pagan wedding only on condition former Pop Idol contestant Waller, from Gillingham, quits his ailing musical career.

Fat Scooby signs up to pet welfare fit club

■ BY JON COATES

MEET Scooby, believed to be Medway's fattest dog who has been enrolled on a 100-day doggy diet after tipping the scales at a massive 4st 7lbs – almost twice what she should.

The 13-year-old mongrel was placed in the PDSA Pet Fit Club after over indulging on her favourite Scooby snacks: chicken curry, Thai food, fish and chips, pizzas, Sunday lunches, ice cream, cakes and sweets.

Owner Jennifer Thompson, 61, of Gillingham, said: "Scooby does adore her food. She can smell a dropped chip miles away and will sniff it out within seconds."

Scooby's sweet tooth has seen her pile on the pounds, making exercise tiring.

A half-hour walk now takes three times as long as Scooby tends to sit down every few metres or so for a breather.

Jennifer said the rescue pup's battle with a life-threatening illness early on in life had led them to pamper her with tasty treats.

She said: "She had a rough start to life and we compensated for that by indulging her with her favourite foods."

"We have spoilt her over the years and are the first to admit that, but now things are going to be very different."

Scooby's diet and fitness programme is being specially tailored by experts at the Gillingham PDSA PetAid hospital.

It is hoped the crash diet will see her shed more excess pounds than her rotund rivals, winning her the Pet Fit Club crown in January 2008.

Her fellow dog finalists include a chunky six-year-old chihuahua Nikki, whose weight of 6kg makes her 46 per cent overweight; bichon frise Lennon, who dines on chocolate biscuits and fresh chicken, beef and gravy; cocker spaniel Poppy, who responds to the word 'walkies' by hiding under her basket; and four-year-old labrador Storm, who scavenges food at every opportunity.

Senior veterinary surgeon Elaine Pendlebury adds: "Last year's entrants did exceptionally well and we are really looking forward to giving our new PDSA Pet Fit Club challengers the support and advice they need to kick start a healthier lifestyle."

The charity has produced a special free leaflet featuring pet diet and fitness advice which is available by calling 0800 917 2509 or from www.pdsa.org.uk

Supporters can follow Scooby's progress on the PDSA website, www.pdsa.org.uk/petfitclub and can even sponsor her weight-loss efforts and raise funds for pets in need of vets at www.justgiving.com/SponsorPDSA_Scooby.

See the falls and bails in the third part of the Skate Medway series

Skatepark opened following three-year campaign by teen

A PURPOSE-built skate park has opened in Medway – bringing a determined teenager's three-year campaign for its creation to an end.

The state-of-the-art £250,000 park, in Jackson's Field, Rochester, was officially opened on Saturday morning, giving skaters and BMXers a permanent place to hone their skills.

Shelley-Georgina Yates, 17, who spearheaded the campaign, said she was delighted her dream had become a reality.

The Rochester teenager said: "There were a lot of bumps along the way and at one point it didn't look as if it would ever get built, but I'm over the moon it's finally here."

Shelley first contacted councillors in 2004 after becoming frustrated by the lack of skating facilities in Medway.

She said: "I've been skateboarding for more than three years and used to get told off for skateboarding through Rochester High Street.

"There was a real demand for a skate park in Medway, so I encouraged my friends to help me persuade the council to build the park."

Having handed a 600-signature petition to Medway council asking for a dedicated area for the skate and bike community to congregate, she played a large part in the park's design and location.

Shelley and 20 of her bike and skate friends worked closely with the council's Greenspaces team to draw up plans for the park, which boasts a bowl and tricky street course, seating area, lighting and CCTV.

Her efforts were praised by community services councillor Howard Doe, who said: "Shelley is an inspiration to other young people in Medway."

"Here is a young lady who developed an idea, used the democratic process to have her ideas heard by councillors and was involved at every stage."

"She should feel incredibly proud of her achievement."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Police need witnesses to violent late night attack

A MAN suffered deep cuts to his face and bruising after being repeatedly struck with a sharp weapon in a late night assault.

The 41 year old was attacked with either a bottle or a knife in Barnsole Road, Gillingham, last Wednesday at 11pm.

The suspect is described as being black, in his mid-20s, 5ft 10ins tall and of average build. He wore a grey hooded top and blue denim low cut jeans.

Police have appealed for witnesses to come forward.

Lurking stranger sparks alert for schoolchildren

POLICE have warned children to be wary of strangers after a man was seen lurking around a leisure centre.

The man was seen taking pictures of young boys playing football at Lordswood Leisure Centre on November 4.

Neighbourhood officer Gavin Nicholls and his colleagues responded by visiting four schools in the area and talked to pupils about what they should do if a stranger approaches them.

The schools have also sent letters home to parents informing them of the incident.

Husband and wife fined for throwing fag butts

A COUPLE has been fined for throwing cigarette butts out of the window as they sat in a fast food restaurant car park.

Robert and Natalie Brown, of Parr Avenue, Gillingham, were caught littering by a Medway council enforcement officer.

They were summoned to appear at court after failing to pay the £80 fixed penalty notice.

The husband and wife pleaded guilty to littering at Medway Magistrates Court on November 5 and were both ordered to pay £40 costs as well as the £80 fine.

Crackdown on underage drinkers gets results

MORE than 100 litres of alcohol was seized from underage drinkers during a five-week police crackdown.

Officers confiscated hundreds of pounds worth of vodka, lager, cider and alcopops from teenagers as young as 14 – before pouring it down the drains. Seventeen youngsters caught drinking booze on the streets were so intoxicated they had to be taken home to their parents during the campaign.

Letters were sent to the parents or guardians of those stopped by the patrols.

Remembrance Day still important, says MP

Crowds out to salute our war heroes

■ BY NICK AMES

THOUSANDS of people attended touching services across Medway on Remembrance Day to pay their respects to the country's fallen soldiers.

Ageing from brave war veterans down to toddlers they attended services in Chatham, Gillingham, Rainham and Rochester, observing a two-minute silence to mark the end of World War One on Sunday at 11am.

The tributes remembered those who made the ultimate sacrifice for our freedom during the conflict and on numerous battlefields around the world since then.

Wreaths and poppies were laid at the war memorials at the Great Lines, Wood Street and Black Lion, all Gillingham, St Margaret's Church, Rainham, and Victoria Gardens, Chatham.

Mayor of Medway Val Goulden and Medway council leader Rodney Chambers led proceedings in Rochester, during which veterans performed a salute and march past along the high street.

Chatham and Aylesford MP Jonathan Shaw, who attended a Veterans Ceremony at Victoria Gardens War Memorial, said: "This was an opportunity to give our respects and thanks to those who have allowed us to be here today."

"It was about honouring and remembering unsung heroes and heroines and recognising the wonderful contribution the veterans have made. It is important we never forget the many heroic acts and sacrifices of our veterans and their families so that we can enjoy our freedom and democracy."

He added: "I think it is of particular importance for the younger generations to reflect and remember those who have gone before them."

REMEMBERING: Flags held high during Sunday's parade

"I thank those who play their part in making sure our dead live on in collective memory as individuals – not merely as statistics of those terrible wars."

The Royal Marines Association held its Annual Remembrance Service and Turning the Page Ceremony at Rochester Cathedral on Saturday at 10.45am.

The historic cathedral also hosted the Remembrance Day edition of popular BBC1 TV show Songs of Praise, which was screened on Sunday at 5.25pm and watched by several million viewers.

Film crews spent several days filming inside the place of worship and getting footage of Rochester High Street and Chatham Historic Dockyard for the broadcast.

Two further editions of Songs of Praise, which is in its 45th year, filmed at the cathedral will be broadcast in April next year.

Santa's put through his paces

SANTA has been put through his paces in a "boot camp" by top fitness trainer Cornel Chin for the run-up to Christmas.

Bluewater organised the sessions for Father Christmas in order to speed up his delivery of presents during the festive season.

Mr Chin, who has worked as a fitness instructor for Hollywood hunk Leonardo di Caprio, designed a number of exercises including a Santa twist, Santa squat and Santa sack hop.

He said: "The plan is to get Santa as fit as possible for this festive season."

"This way he will be able to ensure that all the presents he has for good children around the world are definitely delivered on time."

The boot camp and its "xmacises" are aimed at a fitter and healthier Santa for the 21st century.

Fiona Campbell-Reilly, Bluewater marketing manager, said: "Santa has been around for years, but society has changed and our Santa needs to reflect this."

"The boot camp is getting him into shape and setting an example to the children who idolise him. He will be the same loveable jolly man – but fitter and healthier."

The drive for a fitter Father Christmas is also backed by the British Heart Foundation.

FOOD SAFETY: A health inspector with a bag of lentils from Bismillah Halal Fresh Meats that had been gnawed by mice

Rotting meat and rodents at food shop

A DECOMPOSED mouse was among the sickening finds discovered during a routine health inspection of a halal food shop, a court heard.

Environmental health officers found food gnawed by mice on sale, meat due to be sold stored next to rotting meat, and the floors and shelves littered with mice droppings at Bismillah Halal Fresh Meats in Gillingham.

Halal meat comes from animals that have been slaughtered according to Muslim law.

Owner Sheikh Mohamed Abdulrauf was charged with five counts of putting public health at risk at Medway Magistrates Court on Monday last week. He pleaded guilty to all charges and was ordered to pay Medway council £2,000 and £2,690 costs.

Magistrates were shown 34 photographs of evidence collected during the inspection.

Health officers seized 46 bags of food from the Gillingham Road shop.

Each bag had been on sale despite having been clearly gnawed by mice.

The team discovered rotten meat past its sell-by-date further inside, stored next to food that was due to be sold.

Four legs of lamb that were soft to the touch and a slimy and discoloured chicken left on a chiller shelf, were also seized.

■ BY SIMON ROBINSON

Officers also found food which had been defrosted and refrozen was on sale, and a faulty freezer was not keeping food chilled at the right temperature.

Fresh and old mouse droppings were strewn throughout the shop, including the floor and shelves where food was being sold, near food preparation areas and next to food scales.

Chair of the bench Angela Howe said: "This is a very serious matter and public health is something that is very important to us."

"The council doesn't think it was Mr Abdulrauf's intention to sell the meat, but it should have been labelled that it was unfit for human consumption."

Putrefied

"This could have been sold by accident and cross-contamination could have occurred."

Mr Abdulrauf was charged with three counts of failing to have adequate procedures in place to control pests, and one count of failing to keep the premises clean and maintained in good repair and condition.

He was also charged with failure to comply with regulations that unsafe raw meat which was putrefied and unfit for human consumption was not placed on the market.

Christmas lights are turned on at Bluewater

INVICTA FM presenter Ali Wheeler was on hand to help turn on the spectacular Christmas lights at Bluewater.

And Ali is at home for Christmas – cooking the turkey for her family.

"It's Ali the festive hostess with the festive mostest," she said.

"I love Christmas – I'm really looking forward to some quality time. And this switch on at Bluewater was the perfect start."

"We have had a great day here – it's Santa, elves, lights and some great choirs."

yourmedway NEWS IN BRIEF

The Continent is about to get a little closer

MEDWAY will move a step close to the Continent when Eurostar services start running from Ebbsfleet International station.

The high-speed trains will take just two hours to get to Paris, one hour and 10 minutes to reach Lille, 40 minutes longer to arrive in Brussels.

Passenger services are due to start running from Ebbsfleet to France and Belgium on Monday.

The new station can be reached by taking a train to Greenhithe and then a Fasttrack bus until a new direct rail service to Ebbsfleet starts in December, 2009.

Medway council's economic chief Jane Chitty said: "The immediate benefit for the people of Medway is the direct links to the Continent."

"It's only a short drive to Ebbsfleet and after 2009 the area will also benefit from fast train links to the Olympic site and St Pancras."

"Strategically our position in relation to Europe has always been very important. This new train service will strengthen and enhance that position."

Inspectors give better marks to CofE school

A PRIMARY school has been given a satisfactory rating by Ofsted inspectors after making significant improvements.

St James' CofE Primary School, on the Isle of Grain, was praised for its foundation stage, extracurricular events and pupils' behaviour.

The report noted significant improvements had been made since the last inspection, in which the school was handed a Notice to Improve order.

Headteacher Sue Gray said: "A number of changes have improved every aspect of school life, from playground games to learning and achievement."

Primary pupils get day off over flood threat fears

CHILDREN got a day off school after it was deemed at risk of flooding from a tidal surge.

St Mary's Island Primary School in Chatham shut its doors for the day on Friday on the advice of the Environment Agency.

Headteacher Sharon Day said: "Following flood alerts due to our low-lying position we took the decision to close the school. The safety of children must be our priority."

The Environment Agency issued flood warnings for most of coastal Kent on Thursday night.

It was feared strong winds and high tides would lead to widespread flooding, but this failed to materialize.

Staff hours slashed at troubled leisure centre

AN AILING leisure centre has had its opening hours slashed by a third by council bosses.

The Stirling Centre's opening times will be halved on four week days from January 1 – equating to 30 hours in total.

Employees at the Rochester sports complex were given the devastating news last Wednesday afternoon – the day after the council's cabinet gave the cutbacks the green light.

One member of staff, who did not wish to be named, said: "We all feel let down... No-one's listened to any of the proposals we put forward and we've had no support."

"The rotas we've been given for when the reduced hours come into effect show drastic cuts. The fitness instructors have had their hours cut from 37 to ten. Who's going to work for ten hours a week?"

From New Year's Day the centre will open from 4pm on Tuesdays and Fridays, 5pm on Mondays and Thursdays with Wednesdays and weekends unaffected. This will be for a three month trial period.

Community services chief Howard Doe said: "The opening hours have had to be reviewed because the centre was operating at a loss."

QUESTION & ANSWER

KLARE KENNETT

Q How did you get involved with the RSPCA?

A My background is journalism, but I have also always been passionate about animal welfare. When I saw the RSPCA role advertised, it seemed the ideal job for me. I am able to use my knowledge of the media to help promote kindness to animals and prevent cruelty.

Q Have people's attitudes towards animal welfare improved or worsened in recent years?

A In many ways, attitudes towards animal welfare have improved in recent years. For a start, according to an RSPCA report published this month measuring the state of animal welfare in the UK, the proportion of people who feel for a society to be truly civilised animal welfare must be a key priority has leapt from 54 per cent to 73 per cent in the last year.

We also know six out of 10 people think supermarkets should stop selling eggs laid by hens in cages, but more than six out of 10 eggs still come from hens kept in this way, so there is plenty of room for improvement.

There has been a huge increase in the number of meat chickens raised to higher-welfare standards, quadrupling from 10 million in 2004 to more than 40 million this year. However, this is still less than five per cent of the market.

We see that as few as one in five pet shops selling 'exotic' animals such as snakes and primates offer free written information to customers. People buying pets have a legal responsibility to look after them properly, and accessible information from pet shops would help them do this.

Good news is that the number of wild-caught birds imported into the EU has plummeted from 72,000 in 2003 to 11 last year, following a ban. But the number of wild-caught reptiles imported has increased from 11,000 to 18,400 which is worrying.

Q What single practice would you like to see banned?

A I would like to see the extremely cruel and disturbing practice of using primates for research to be banned immediately. We are slowly getting that way, as in the past few weeks MEPs categorically backed a call to bring an end to the use of primates in research.

In the 21st century there should be no room for experimenting on primates. We know these animals are highly intelligent and they can suffer in very similar ways to humans.

There should be new laws which include a clear strategy for replacing primates with humane alternatives.

Q What is the biggest challenge facing the world at present?

A Achieving world peace and seeing an end to poverty and famine. It is incredible that world travel is so accessible to most of the developed world, but still so many people living on this planet are starving to death. A huge challenge facing the world is the issue of cruelty – research has shown that people who carry out vicious attacks on other people often begin by being cruel to animals.

Q Is there anything we can do about it?

A I believe that world peace begins at home and if we start being kinder to each other then we have taken the first important step towards world peace. An act of kindness can make all the difference in the world to someone's day and such acts cause a ripple effect. A thoughtless, cruel remark can hurt badly and have a negative ripple effect. Tiny changes, but if we all thought more about the effect of our actions on other people, then we would not consider waging war on them.

In terms of poverty and famine, it is obscene that so much food is thrown away every day when so many people are starving to death.

In terms of cruelty, the RSPCA is working hard to get the message of kindness, not cruelty, to every schoolchild in this country through our education programme.

Q How big do you think your carbon footprint is?

A I walk wherever I can, rather than use the car, and try to conserve energy at home as much as possible. I recycle everything I can religiously and I also buy local produce as much as possible.

Synchronised to the moon's daily cycle, the combination time and tide clock gives you an innovative and convenient guide to tides, whilst also providing conventional time keeping. The quartz driven tide hand will rotate every 12 hours and 25 minutes around the solid stainless steel fascia, giving you the state of the tide at a glance. This design also provides an indication of how many hours remain until high or low water. Development means business for arches

■ BY SIMON ROBINSON

A BID to convert derelict railway arches into offices and workshops remains on track after being granted planning permission.

The run-down arches, on the Strood side of the railway bridge, will be transformed into small offices as part of a scheme which also boasts on open green area and a series of canopies.

The arches form the first phase of regeneration at the Watermill Wharf site, off Canal Road.

It is hoped the development will be followed with a new build incorporating further business units. Community facilities are also set to be included.

The community enterprise hub's main purpose will be to accommodate businesses whose profits are principally invested back into Medway or into helping create more jobs.

Derek Wells, the chairman of Hubco, one of the firms behind the project, said: "The Watermill Wharf development is an exciting initiative which will provide accommodation for emerging and developing small businesses, and jobs for local people.

"It has been a highly involved project to develop due to the complex nature of the site, but thanks to the dedication and hard work of the project team we have now got planning permission.

"I now look forward to continuing to work with Medway council, and all those supporting the project, to bring it to fruition."

Medway council's economic councillor Jane Chitty said: "These types of project are only just beginning to be recognised for the huge value they bring both economically and socially to local communities, and I am absolutely delighted that Medway is at the forefront of their delivery.

TRANSFORMATION: Planning permission has been given to turn the run-down arches into a series of small offices and workshops

"It will be a big feather in Medway's cap. The Watermill Wharf project is all about promoting physical, economic and social regeneration, and obtaining planning permission is a huge step forward.

"Getting to this stage has taken an enormous amount of hard work from a lot of people and could not have been achieved without such a strong partnership."

Planning permission was granted after the completion of a large number of extensive surveys and reports required by the local planning authority and the Environment Agency.

These included detailed contamination, noise and vibration, flora and fauna, transport, archaeological, flood risk, and river frontage ecological studies.

Funding for the first phase of the project has come from the Department for Communities and Local Government, and Medway council.

Green group calls for bike training to be improved

GREEN campaigners have accused Kent County Council of failing to provide enough cycle training to keep young people safe.

Kent Green Party says the county council should use the government's national training scheme – instead of its own one-day courses.

Campaigner Steve Dawe said: "Kent's courses are not being run under the Government's national scheme, in which far more training is provided.

"Medway uses the government scheme, gets a grant, and does not charge youngsters or their families for cycle proficiency training."

But KCC cabinet member for highways Keith Ferrin said: "We take cycle training very seriously. We offer our own Kent Rider scheme as an introduction to safer cycling for Year 6 pupils countywide.

"About 10,000 pupils were successfully introduced to cycling in this way during the last school year.

"The Kent scheme offers a one-day, on-the-road course with a ratio of one instructor for every six pupils.

"Parents pay £15 a year for the course which, I believe, represents good value-for-money."

He added: "In an ideal world we would offer free training to all, but the cost to the taxpayer would run into hundreds of thousands of pounds."

Over half our schools are officially labelled healthy

A TOTAL of 310 schools countywide have been officially designated as "healthy".

The NHS and Kent County Council are behind the move, which promotes fruit and veg tuck shops, healthy menus for lunch and physical activities.

It is designed as part of a lifestyle package which also includes educational standards and personal well-being.

A total of 59 per cent of schools across the county have currently qualified for the award.

Chris Wells, KCC schools chief, said: "Hopefully the programme will influence pupils throughout their lives and in turn inspire their families to healthier lifestyles."

All wrapped up

Simon Robinson finds out how to make your gift even more special with a new wrapping service at Bluewater

THE RUN-UP to Christmas fills me with dread.

As a criminally disorganised 20-something male, just thinking about the whole present-buying process is enough to bring me out in a cold sweat.

I know how it should be done; think of what your loved-ones would like, buy it, wrap it, stick it under the tree.

Sadly I am completely lacking in the necessary skills to complete this seemingly simple four-part task.

Unable to use any initiative when it comes to matching people with gifts and quick to use the 'head-in-the-sand' technique, I'm resigned to my fate of aimlessly wandering through Bluewater's halls on Christmas Eve desperate, panicked and alone. Again.

Having impulse-bought for England to get past the purchasing stage I move on to the next equally daunting challenge – wrapping.

Armed with only three metres of wrapping paper, a pair of scissors and a roll of sticky tape, I'm usually able to make steady progress on the standard-shaped pressies – books, CDs and DVDs.

It's the odd-shaped and awkwardly-packaged gifts which reduce me to tears: how do you wrap a football?!

Enter gift wrapping guru Jane Mears with a host of top tips and advice for people like me who have the hand equivalent of two left feet.

After an hour of paper creasing, knot-tying and ribbon cutting at one of Jane's workshops I had successfully wrapped a bottle of wine, a Christmas pudding and made a giftbag.

What's more, said items neither resemble a train wreck nor were they precariously held together with 100 pieces of sticky tape.

I'm confident for the first time this year I can offer the family perfectly wrapped presents on Christmas morning, but they'll still be handed over while rolling out my usual disclaimer "if you don't like it, I've got the receipt".

Jane's top tips

- 1 For awkward shapes, use flexible wrapping like cellophane.
- 2 If wrapping something sharp, pad with tissue or bubble wrap first.
- 3 Use double sided tape for that professional touch.
- 4 Keep your wrapping area organised and free of clutter.
- 5 Keep ribbon and paper offcuts, they will come in handy for decorative touches.
- 6 If it's round, place a bowl underneath your paper to keep it still.
- 7 When wrapping garments, fold neatly into a compact square or oblong and wrap with tissue.
- 8 Make sure you have some sharp scissors for cutting ribbon. Blunt scissors are only good for cutting paper.
- 9 If you can't be bothered to do it yourself, Webster's Wrapology are offering a unique, high quality gift wrapping service within Bluewater up to Christmas Eve. Prices start from £3.95 for a small item and go up to £7.95 for a large gift.

Shopping centre switch-on draws crowds

BLUEWATER celebrated the start of the Christmas shopping season on Thursday as Santa switched on the Christmas lights.

Invicta FM's Ali Wheeler and James Heming, with characters from upcoming festive movie Alvin and the Chipmunks, joined Father Christmas for the big turn on watched by a crowd of several hundred people.

The shopping mall also opened its grotto for Christmas with children from the Demelza House hospice getting a special preview.

Radio personality Ali said:

"This has been great, we've had loads of children and families and they're all enjoying themselves."

Bluewater shopping centre is expecting trade to grow over the coming weeks.

General manager Andre Parkinson said: "We've had an excellent year already, but the festive season is always busy."

"The lead up to Christmas sees shoppers flocking here – but our busiest day of the year is actually December 27. So there is not going to be much of a rest for our staff over the holiday period."

TO SURVIVE the most sociable time of the year and celebrate the Christmas party season with a dazzling smile, Oralclens, the oral care specialists, are giving away TEN new fresh-breath kits to lucky winners

Lucky winners will receive this fabulous fresh-breath pack, which includes the brand new OralClens Natural mouthwashes.

Proven to kill 99.9 per cent of oral bacteria and ensuring constant fresh breath, the natural range comes in two flavours (citrus and mint), which are both alcohol-free and do not contain chemicals like Sodium Benzoate (commonly found in other high street mouthwashes).

This means they are kinder and gentler on your mouth and gums and suitable for all the family.

The packs, worth about £70, also contain OralClens Natural Toothpaste, pocket-size interdental brushes/handle, Powerfloss, Citrox Oral Spray, tongue scrapers, long-stem interdental brush holders and floss picks – all essential for creating that impressive winning smile over the festive period.

If you are not a lucky winner of the fresh-breath packs, come along to the Look Good Feel Good show at Big Blue Chatham, on Saturday and Sunday, November 17-18, to get a free sample of Oralclens toothpaste and mouthwash.

To enter, simply answer the question below and send your entry on a postcard, along with your email address (if applicable), name, address and daytime telephone number to Oralclens Comp, KOS Media, Apple Barn, Smeeth, Ashford, Kent TN25 6SR. Closing date November 30, 2007.

Each week we get a mystery writer to air their views on living in Medway...

It's time for freak to grow up and take it like a man

LIVERPOOL striker Peter Crouch has likened Gillingham fans to "hillbillies in the film Deliverance".

Bearing in mind most of the time he's on the football pitch he can't hit a cow's backside with a banjo I think the analogy is a bit rich, if you ask me.

In his autobiography Crouch blubs about being teased by the Gills fans for giving him a bit of stick about his height. So he was called a 'freak'. So what?

Hundreds of players with more talent in their little toes than he has in his entire clown-sized feet have suffered much worse and managed not to spit their dummies out.

Hate figures of the modern game, such as Blackburn's Robbie Savage, Bolton's El Hadji Diouf and West Ham's Craig Bellamy, are routinely barracked by opposition fans but you don't hear them whinging about it.

As professionals they ignore the abuse they are thrown from the stands and get on with what they do best – playing football.

Why can't Crouch do the same?

He's got absolutely no right to single out the Gillingham fans as any worse than any set of supporters in the country.

Is he seriously suggesting the abuse a few thousand Gillingham fans gave him SEVEN years ago was more upsetting than that he receives every time he plays at Goodison Park, the home of Liverpool's biggest rivals Everton? I doubt it somehow.

And yet he well and truly sticks the knife in. He wrote: "Looking around at the faces of the home support at Gillingham, the irony was never lost on me that these people had the cheek to call me a 'freak'. Perhaps they should have taken a look at themselves first."

I'd love to know how many walking lamp posts the 6ft 7ins striker saw in the crowd that day.

In all seriousness, though, surely he's smart enough to realise the abuse is nothing personal, it's a simple case of us against them. Football fans, like those of any other sport, get behind their team and pick apart their opposition – including their players, manager, fans, culture, stereotypes, nationality and anything else they can play upon – in any way they can.

It's not big or clever but it's a way in which fans come together to support their side and has been going on across the footballing world in all levels of the game for decades.

Crouch knew this before he decided to pursue a career in football – as opposed to basketball – and must have known his size would soon become the object of ridicule.

If he was plying his trade in the lower leagues then I may be more inclined to feel sorry for him.

But he's not. He's playing for Liverpool and England (somehow) and getting paid tens of thousands of pounds for the privilege.

My message to Crouch is this – you may be 6ft 7ins tall, but you need to grow up.

RUTH COLLINGWOOD

The library assistant reveals why she believes living in Medway should be more widely appreciated

What are your favourite and least favourite things about Medway and what would you change?

I love the fact that there's always something going on in Medway. As a community we've got a lot going for us. It's just a shame we don't always recognise it. There are always gigs happening at venues like the Tap 'n' Tin, and local art is showcased at the New Arts Centre in Chatham and the Moogie Wonderland club nights. I really admire the way local people are often active in making things happen for themselves and their community. Of course, like everybody else, I love the fact that we've got a rich and varied history. I think the thing I really don't like about Medway is that, as a community, we can be extremely negative and critical about ourselves. It's as if we've labelled ourselves in this way, and can't seem to shake the negativity off. How can we expect everybody else to respect and admire where we live if we can't respect ourselves? Having said that, I do think it's good for a community to be self-effacing to some extent. Medway has great things to offer, but could never be accused of smugness or pretentiousness.

What do you make of the regeneration plans?

I think it's really positive and exciting that money is being spent in Medway as it's long overdue. However, regeneration is great as long as the needs of all sections of the community are considered and their rights protected. I know that in other areas where regeneration has taken place, local people have lost their homes and communities have been destroyed. Often, the priority seems to be attracting young professionals, commuters and visitors to an area. I hope that the powers that be in Medway are busy ensuring that everybody benefits from regeneration. Hopefully the next few years will be really exciting.

Housebound with no 999 assistance

May I tell you about my experience of asking the police for help.

Today my wife and I had to go out but could not do so as a car was blocking our off-road parking space.

I phoned the police for help at 9.50am and again at 10.30am, then at 11.30am.

Each time they were too busy to help but the owner of the car finally moved it at 12 noon.

I told the police I am 74 years old and registered disabled and I need a car as I cannot walk very far and neither can my wife who is 73.

New skatepark is opening

First I'd just like to say that I enjoy reading the Yourmedway paper each week on the way to work. It's really good to get a free, good quality paper to keep me up-to-date on what's happening in my area.

I just thought I would let you know (in case you were not aware) that this coming Saturday (the 10th) there will be the official opening of the first open air, concrete skatepark in Medway since the Black Lion skatepark (<http://www.gillinghamskatepark.com/>) was closed and flattened to make way for a car park, exactly 20 years ago.

It's located at the very top of Jackson's Field in Rochester, near Mid-Kent college.

There is also a competition being held at the skatepark on the same day so it should be a great day, providing the weather holds out!

It was an uphill battle to get the go-ahead for the skatepark and it's all thanks to a young lady from Rochester called Shelly who kept fighting so that young people would have something positive to do in Medway instead of loitering and causing trouble and would not take no for an answer from the council.

If you would like more information about the story let me know as I have not read any coverage about it. In my view it's one of the most important things to happen in terms of free facilities for young people in the Medway area in a very long time.

Keep up the good work and I look forward to reading your paper again next week.

German aircraft flying to its fate

I was interested to see the article on the Battle of Britain book and the accompanying picture of a German aircraft flying over the River Medway.

It seems alone and unescorted and given the number of RAF squadrons stationed locally during the battle I would not imagine it had a very long life expectancy.

Zeppelin mania is taking hold again

In your local Kent TV page you remark how unusual it is that a clip of a Led Zeppelin tribute band is popular.

This is at a time when everywhere there are stories about the band's one-off concert tickets going for up to £3,000 on ebay and a VIP price of £5,000 just going on sale.

Also the group's CD is set to enter the charts at number one.

So maybe it's not a total surprise.

Spice up a cancer fundraising event

Some of your readers may be aware that November is Lung Cancer Awareness Month.

Lung cancer is the biggest cancer killer of men and women in the UK responsible for as many deaths as breast cancer, bowel cancer and leukaemia put together.

As a patron of The Roy Castle Lung Cancer Foundation, I am writing to ask for the support of your readers.

This November, the Foundation is organising an appeal called Big Book Bonanza in order to raise vital funds for the charity and save lives.

I urge as many people as possible to take part by organising a 'bring and buy' book event either at home with friends and family, or in the workplace with colleagues. You can keep it simple, add a raffle and sell refreshments, include magazines, or perhaps be more creative by having a quiz or a fancy dress based around a particular book – anything goes.

To help you, the Foundation has produced a fundraising pack which includes everything you need to organise a successful and fun-filled event. In doing so, you will be helping thousands of lung cancer patients across the UK. Order your pack today by calling 0871 220 5426 or email bigbook@roycastle.org.

Thanks

Helping children to deal with diabetes

Today is World Diabetes Day (November 14) and we are writing to tell you about the serious problems faced by children with diabetes in schools across the country.

A survey published today by charities Diabetes UK, Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (JDRF), INPUT and UK Children with Diabetes Advocacy Group showed that school staff are often not given the training they need to help children with Type 1 diabetes manage their condition on a daily basis or in an emergency, which is putting these youngsters' health in danger. Also, 70 per cent of schools said that where children with Type 1 diabetes are unable to inject themselves with insulin, parents have to come in and do it for them. This is unacceptable as it can isolate children from school life and have serious repercussions for families.

As parents of a child with Type 1 diabetes, we feel very strongly that every school in England needs to implement a policy that sets out how children with diabetes should be supported during school hours. Policies should include working with the Local Education Authority, school nurses, teachers, and paediatric diabetes teams.

Good diabetes control in the early years is essential to help reduce a child's chance of developing complications in later life such as heart disease, stroke, kidney damage and amputation.

There are over 20,000 children under 15 years old with diabetes in the UK. The sooner we help families by getting a joined-up approach to helping school children live with the condition, the sooner these young people will be able to enjoy their childhood like others their age.

Shaun's new year looks pretty good

Shaun Williamson looks back over a busy year... and forward to the unexpected

AFTER a packed year, Maidstone-born actor Shaun Williamson is looking forward to an uncertain future.

Currently preparing to star in pantomime at The Marlowe Theatre, Williamson has no fixed plans for the New Year, despite a number of offers.

"Sometimes the phone just rings and it changes your life," he revealed. "I don't mean that in a grandiose way, but it can be nice just waiting to see what will turn up next. I didn't think anything would happen this year, but I've not stopped."

One call that certainly did change his life was from comedy star Ricky Gervais two years ago. Following Williamson's performance as the luckless Barry Evans in Eastenders, Gervais wanted him in Extras.

"I'd never met Ricky, he just called and offered me the part. He told me 'we need to discuss it because you might not like it', but they outlined the first series and it sounded great."

After 10 years in Eastenders, Williamson was ready for a change. To say his character Barry had a tough time is an understatement – he was conned, lost his father and was wrongly diagnosed as having a fatal condition before being murdered by his unfaithful wife.

Since he left the soap in 2004, life has been distinctly more upbeat. The accomplished singer, who lives with his family near Faversham, has enjoyed runs in the West End with Saturday Night Fever and Guys and Dolls, starred in the Rocky Horror Show and Oliver and appeared on numerous television programmes.

He has also recently acted in an adaptation of Rapunzel for the BBC and filmed a movie, British drama Daylight Robbery.

He will be stepping into Barry/Shaun's shoes again for the Extras Christmas special, it is likely to be the last episode, but he is still upbeat about the future: "I never thought I would be working with Ricky Gervais in a million years. I've been so lucky."

Shaun Williamson will be appearing as Abanazar in Aladdin, alongside presenter Stephen Mulhern, local hero Dave Lee and a troupe of Mongolian acrobats.

Tickets are priced from £8.50 to £21.50. For details see www.marlowetheatre.com, call the box office on 01227 787787 or pick up a brochure from the theatre.

ALBERT LEE AND HOGAN'S HEROES

Saturday, November 17
The Mick Jagger Centre, Dartford

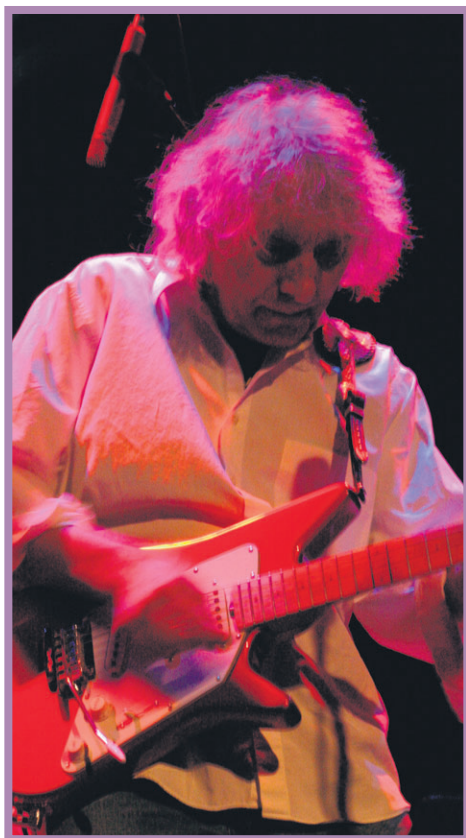

AFTER enjoying a sell-out crowd on their last visit to Dartford, Albert Lee and Hogan's Heroes are making a welcome return.

The Grammy Award-winning Lee is one of the world's finest guitar players. He has toured with The Everly Brothers and played with Eric Clapton's band and Bill Wyman's Rhythm Kings.

Alongside the highly respected Hogan's Heroes – some of the most highly regarded rock 'n' roll and country musicians in Britain – Lee has been touring for 20 years. They have made acclaimed appearances at the Glastonbury and Cropredy festivals, as well as performing on television.

Their last concert at the Mick Jagger Centre sold out and proved to be a powerful display of brilliant musicianship. Later this month Lee is due to perform with The Refreshments in Sweden and at London's O2 arena, on the same bill as Led Zeppelin.

The concert, starting at 8pm, is a standing gig with limited balcony seating. Tickets cost £18/£16. To book, call the box office at 01322 291100.

ROCHESTER SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Saturday, November 17
Central Theatre, Chatham

THE City of Rochester Symphony Orchestra will be kicking off the new season with a stunning tribute to Elgar.

As the most prominent and successful English composer of his generation, Elgar's work has continued to knock down barriers and draw people to classical music. His greatest pieces, including Land of Hope and Glory, are still favourites for people of all ages today.

To celebrate his 150th birthday, the CRSO will be playing two of his most popular pieces – Serenade for Strings in E minor Op. 20 and Enigma Variations Op. 36.

The concert will continue with a tribute to the brilliance of Brahms and his Symphony No. 4 in E minor Op. 98. With his more intimate and soul-searching style, this piece brings to life his desire to be considered worthy of Beethoven's memory.

The concert starts at 7.30pm and tickets cost £8. To book, call the box office on 01634 338338 or email boxoffice@medway.gov.uk.

PAUL LAWSON

Wednesday, November 21
Woodville Halls, Gravesend

DISCOVER the ghostly past of Woodville Halls during a special evening of clairvoyance next week.

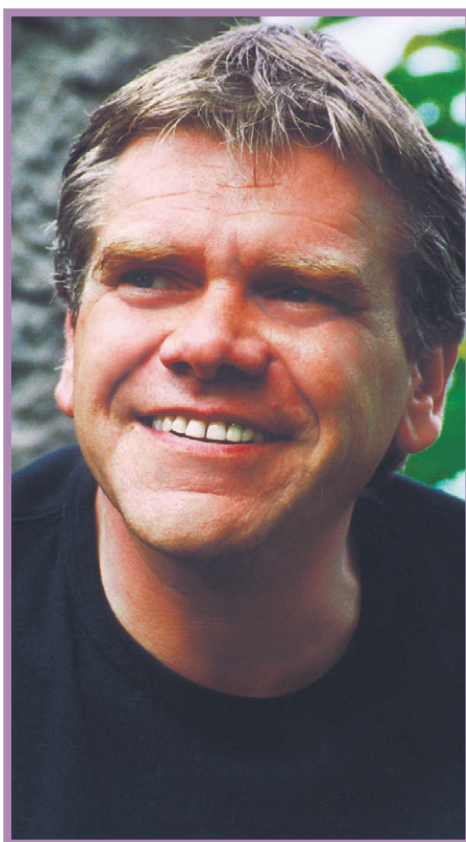

Maidstone-based medium Paul Lawson is making a second visit to the theatre after detecting a spirit presence when performing there earlier this month. Both Lawson and his partner Lisa, herself a medium who specialises in psychic art, claimed to have sensed an entity in one of the dressing rooms.

They are not the first to suspect that the theatre is haunted. In 2005, blind medium Sharon Neil told staff that she believed the harmless spirit of a nurse was present in the lower dressing rooms beneath the stage.

Although less than 40 years old, Woodville Halls is said to be near the site of a former Victorian nursing home or surgery. The two mediums have suggested that a post-show, all-night vigil might throw some light on the mystery.

The intimate show will start at 7.30pm in the Kent Room. Tickets cost £6.

To book, call the box office on 01474 337774 or visit the website at www.woodvillehalls.com.

GOOD LUCK CHUCK (15)

It all started when Chuck was 10 years old. Breaking the cardinal rules of spin-the-bottle, Charlie refused to kiss a Goth girl, and she put a hex on him. Now, 25 years later, Charlie is a successful dentist... and still cursed so that any girl who sleeps with him will fall madly in love with the next man she meets.

PLANET TERROR (18)

After an experimental bio nerve gas is accidentally released at a remote US military base in Texas, those exposed to the gas turn into flesh eating, mutating zombies out to kill.

Rodriguez directs at full pelt, but his film runs out of dramatic steam in the first hour, leaving the majority of the overblown action to his feisty, gravity-defying heroine.

BUG (18)

A weirdo war veteran who suffers hallucinations about insects shacks up in an Oklahoma city motel with Agnes, a lonely waitress on the run from her abusive husband. As the misfits bond, his paranoia gradually infects Aggie, driving the pair of them to experience terrifying visions.

Robert's focus on America

■ BY EILEEN CONDON

ACTOR and director Robert Redford has no intention of mellowing with age – despite turning 71 this year.

In fact the star says he is more opinionated than ever – particularly when it comes to the current situation in the US.

"It's true to say I'm probably getting angrier and more engaged," he says flashing his trademark blue eyes.

"I'm aware that America has a lot of power and a lot of ability to do good in the world, so I'm very interested in what has happened to our reputation in the world since 9/11."

Redford's laid-back demeanour and gentle manner belies a fierce passion for politics which he's channelled through some of cinema's most influential films, like The Candidate and All The President's Men.

And almost 40 years after hitting the big time in Butch Cassidy And The Sundance Kid, he has come out with all guns blazing again. This time, with his latest movie Lions For Lambs, he has his targets firmly set on the American media, education and on US Congress.

Redford, who also directed the film, stars alongside Tom Cruise and Meryl Streep as an idealistic college professor who inadvertently propels two of his former students into the Afghanistan war with tragic consequences.

Though he had not directed a film for seven years, the veteran star says the screenplay immediately resonated with him. "I was surprised by it because it was political and there's so much commercial insecurity about films these days it seems that only the ones that play safe get made."

"Those that are more risky in nature, that yourkenttv.co.uk

maybe make you think or wonder, are harder to come by. And yet those are the films I've always enjoyed making," he explains.

"To me, it's a film about personal responsibility, about young people accepting the role they play in shaping the future and about how we each deal with our choices in life."

Playing a college professor also struck an ironic chord with the star, as his own education was cut short when he was kicked out of the University of Colorado for drunkenness.

The failed college student went on to become one of the most successful actors in screen history thanks to acclaimed performances in hit films such as Butch Cassidy, The Sting, The Way We Were and The Great Gatsby.

He's also proved to be equally skilled behind the camera with an Oscar win for his directorial debut Ordinary People and a nomination for his 1994 film Quiz Show.

PASSION: Robert Redford directed and stars in his new film Lions for Lambs, a modern, political movie

Despite his stellar career Redford has maintained his integrity as a committed environmentalist and set up the hugely-successful Sundance Film Festival, which encourages new film-makers and actors.

He gave two of the hottest current talents in Hollywood their big break, Brad Pitt in A River Runs Through It, which he directed and Scarlett Johansson, in The Horse Whisperer. His latest find is rising British star Andrew Garfield, who appears in Lions For Lambs.

"I've always enjoyed finding new people," said Redford. "I knew Andrew was English and I'd seen a lot of American actors, but I was very impressed that he could come in and read the part perfectly in an American accent."

Enjoy an exotic island mixer

■ BY CHRIS COURT

A FEW miles south-west of its rather more exotic neighbour Mustique, Canouan may at last be ready to shrug off its image as the forgotten island of the Caribbean.

Thanks to the vision of two multi-millionaires, the green and hilly three square miles of Canouan have been sensitively transformed into a luxury, multi-activity holiday destination.

The island now offers everything most visitors could possibly want – thanks to Swiss-Italian banker Antonio Saladino and American businessman Donald Trump, who have ensured there is plenty to do ashore and afloat, as well as simply soaking up the sun.

At the heart of the Grenadines chain, Canouan has five palm-fringed, soft white coral sand beaches, bath-warm brilliant turquoise seas, a 1.5-mile coral reef, views for miles over the Caribbean from its peaks and average minimum temperatures around 25°C.

Visitors meander the snaking network of narrow roads and paths in golf carts, taking care to avoid the population of tortoises – known locally as turtles – after which the island was named.

A 15-year plan to build 135 high-spec Trump Island Villas, costing from about £1 million, will enable the super-rich to have their own slice of secluded Caribbean paradise here, with breathtaking views.

BEAUTY: A sunset view of Canouan Island's golf course from the balcony of a Raffles resort holiday cottage

Shorter-term, and less well-off, visitors can wallow in top-of-the-range facilities on the 300-acre, five-star Raffles Resort instead, and the smaller Tamarind Beach Hotel & Yacht Club, with both offering superb world cuisine at various gourmet restaurants.

Raffles Resort Canouan Island complex – the luxury hotel group's first resort in the western hemisphere – opened in August 2004.

An amphitheatre-shaped, palm tree setting overlooking sheltered Carenage Bay, it holds 156 dramatically decorated and stylishly furnished one to four bedroom suites and villas, with garden, ocean or golf course views.

If you can drag yourself away from the hotel's gorgeous confines, there's plenty to see and do. We took a high-speed motorboat to Tobago Keys, just 40 minutes away. Because our visit was in the September-October close season, we had this island virtually to ourselves – although a chap soon appeared with a wide choice of T-shirts for sale.

With many young people leaving to find work on other islands, Canouan's population dwindled to under 500. But in 1990, Saladino took a 99-year lease on 1,200 acres, two thirds, of the island.

The story goes that he was unable to build on Mustique and saw Canouan's potential just a few miles across the Caribbean.

Since then the banker and Canouan Resorts Development, which he heads, have spent more than £100m installing an airstrip, roads, electricity, water production, a clinic, schools and a training college.

Now there are some 500 people working at the island's 300-acre Raffles Resort, more than 80 at Tamarind, and some 300 for Trump's villa developments building company.

Raffles merits such a large workforce. As well as the golf course and the fabulous restaurants, it has a well-equipped gym and also offers tennis, yoga, mountain biking and power walking, and sea sports including windsurfing, sailing diving and snorkelling.

YOUR WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY RUSSELL GRANT

AQUARIUS (Jan 21 - Feb 19)

THE next three weeks find you having extensive talks with authority figures. This may be your big chance to present a bold idea, ask for a promotion, or enact changes to a large organisation. Don't be vague in your responses. If you don't know the answer to a question, admit it. Hedging will make people suspicious.

TAURUS (Apr 21 - May 21)

ENTERING into a professional partnership is a good idea. There's never been a better time to sign a contract. Your employer may be vague about future rewards. Get any promises regarding payments in writing. Be willing to make amends. A meeting of the minds generates romance. Nothing excites your imagination like common interests.

LEO (July 24 - Aug 23)

REAL estate matters could take up a good deal of your week. This is a good time to negotiate a home purchase or rental agreement. A romantic partner's ideas about domestic life may be very different from yours. It may be necessary to revise a project. Do this behind the scenes. The less attention you draw to this matter, the better.

SCORPIO (Oct 24 - Nov 22)

YOU'LL find a receptive audience to your ideas. Take each and every opportunity to share your brainstorms. Confusion over a family matter could undermine your authority. If you think you made a mistake, be honest. Don't be too forceful when discussing sensitive matters like religion and politics. An older friend will impart good advice.

PISCES (Feb 20 - Mar 20)

IF you've been thinking of going back to school, send out applications before the end of the month. If you're interested in winning someone's heart, play hard to get. Pairing up with someone who has lots of experience can advance your cause, particularly if you are doing business overseas or are dealing with an unfamiliar culture.

GEMINI (May 22 - Jun 22)

IF you've been suffering from a nagging pain, get a consultation with a health professional. Looking for work? Send out a slew of CVs and job applications. Take an expert's advice with a grain of salt, especially with regard to your job. Curb your spending between now and January, or you could incur some serious debt.

VIRGO (Aug 24 - Sep 23)

IF you're in the market for office equipment, you're in luck. Don't overestimate your physical endurance, especially with regard to work. Putting in late nights and long hours could really tax your health. Pulling back from an intense group project will give you more time for personal pursuits between now and late January.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov 23 - Dec 21)

KEEP your own counsel over the next three weeks. It's best to keep plans private. What was meant as a kind remark could be interpreted the wrong way. Be prepared to explain yourself. It may be best to back down from an amorous affair, as this alliance seems to be clouding your thinking. Onlookers are impressed by your modesty.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr 20)

THIS week prompts you to think carefully about joint finances. Neither a lender nor a borrower be, especially where friends are concerned. A home improvement project could experience some delays between now and January; it may be time to table any major decisions regarding this job. Being resourceful earns you great success at work.

CANCER (Jun 23 - Jul 23)

MAKING plans for a vacation, party, or club gathering is a good use of your talent this week. It gives you great pleasure to organise fun activities. If you're already in a relationship, take care to learn your partner's true desires. It may be best to downplay your aggression. You can't afford to make enemies during this tense period.

LIBRA (Sep 24 - Oct 23)

NEGOTIATING new financial arrangements could prove profitable. A show of wealth won't impress a love interest - use your creativity as bait. An aggressive authority figure is beginning to let up; you could get a welcome reprieve from their oppressive gaze between now and early February. Trust your intuition with regard to a business deal.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22 - Jan 20)

GROUP efforts stimulate your imagination. If you have an idea, run it past a supportive group of friends. Together, you can create a masterpiece, turning a merely good concept into a brilliant one. Don't assume that your peers have as much money as you do. Ease off a partner who is showing signs of strain. Compassion goes a long way.

Trinny and Susannah shape up UK's women

■ BY ANDY WELCH

FROM cellos and goblets to bricks and lollipops, Trinny and Susannah believe they've finally come up with the 12 definitive female body shapes after interrogating thousands of British women about their saddle bags, muffin tops, cankles and pot bellies.

"In our first book we researched the big issues for women such as massive or no boobs, flabby arms, wide hips, short legs, flabby tummies and so on, but over the years a lot of women have pointed out that some of the rules contradicted each other. We thought we'd better deal with that so we came up with the 12 shapes," Trinny explains.

"There's way too much emphasis on what dress size someone is but I never, ever look at the labels in clothes when I'm dressing somebody. I look at the woman's shape and the contrast between her boobs and tummy or whatever, not by picking out a size 14 jacket and just hoping it works."

Susannah adds: "Basically, we wrote The Body Shape Bible to give women confidence and to stop them pulling their hair out when they go shopping for clothes!"

Trinny and Susannah's latest tome highlights the main characteristics of each of their 12 new female body shapes and illustrates how just how easy it is to make simple mistakes by blindly following fashion instead of being aware of what suits your shape.

"The rules and ideas in the book are simple and fundamental so, for example, if you are a corset shape with wide shoulders, narrow hips

SHOPPING SUPREMOS: Trinny and Susannah are on a mission to help women find the right clothes to suit them and long legs you should always wear A-line, single breasted jackets because you're top heavy," Susannah reveals.

"Or if you're a column shape, you should always try to break up your up-and-down body with a funky belt, or a top or dress with a cinched-in waist so that it draws attention to the middle of your body."

In their brand new ITV1 series, Trinny and Susannah Undress the Nation, the girls have the chance to take their innovative new dress code for a road test all over the UK to tackle the country's major style issues.

"Something like 46 per cent of British women are over a size 16 but 80 per cent of high street shops don't stock size 16 and above so larger women often have to shop via catalogues and mail order," reveals Trinny.

"The situation is getting better but it's still very difficult, so rather than going into a shop and picking out all of the size 16s or 18s to try on, no matter what style they are, we want women to ignore the sizes and find the right clothes for their shape instead.

"Just go in and think 'right, I'm going to find all the double-breasted jackets, or all the A-line skirts, or all of the long tailored trousers with pockets at the back or whatever it is that suits my shape' rather than trying on twenty-odd random items in the same size and then getting depressed because none of them actually suit you," she recommends.

Of course, it's not only grown women who make fashion disasters. The teenage generation are just as guilty of putting together catwalk-copied outfits which generally do them no favours at all.

"Right now I would say that a lot of women, especially teenage girls, are wearing very unforgiving skinny jeans simply to feel fashionable and, let's face it, only someone with a Kate Moss-type figure ever looks any good in them," warns Trinny.

"Teenagers are under such enormous pressure from their peers and the media and it's pretty tough if they're not the exact shape that society dictates they should be.

"In my opinion a girl who is pear shaped can still look great as she could just wear a baby doll dress with leggings that come down her mid-calf as a trendy alternative to skinny jeans. There's no shape dilemma that can't be solved," she says.

PROPERTY NEWS

Noisy neighbours top quarrel polls

NOISE is still the main reason for neighbourly disputes, according to research by Halifax estate agents.

In the last 12 months over a quarter of us admit to having had disagreements with neighbours – 26 per cent of these were linked to noise.

The other main causes for a fall out include boundary disputes (14 per cent), pets (11 per cent), parking (10 per cent) and bordering or overhanging trees and plants (7 per cent).

Figures show women outnumbered men for complaining, with anti-social behaviour their largest grievance.

Age also seems to be a factor. A staggering 49 per cent of 16-24 year olds admitted to quarrelling with the neighbours, whilst the 55-64 age group, at 24 per cent, was least likely to have done so.

Geographically, the report identified that those living in the south are over 10 per cent more likely to have had neighbourly disputes sometime during the last year than those living in the North or Midlands.

The conclusion would seem to indicate that if we want harmonious neighbourly relations we should move next-door to a quiet, 60-year-old Yorkshireman.

Bank maintains rate

THE Bank of England's Monetary Policy Committee announced on Thursday it is to maintain the official bank rate of 5.75 per cent.

The rate last increased by 0.25 percentage points its current rate on July 5.

Kent homeowners will gain confidence from the fact that variable rate mortgages will not increase in the immediate future but the decision to maintain current rates went against widespread speculation of a decrease.

Best year to date

DOWNLAND Housing Association reported its best ever year to date.

It built over 400 new homes in the affordable sector across 39 local authorities in the South East, 30 in Kent.

Downland chief executive Mark Perry said: "Several hundred more are in the pipeline including developments in Ashford and Medway. These will range from one bedroom flats to three bedroom houses according to the assessed needs in each area."

WELCOME: The American way of opening your house for the public to view could be the best way to tackle our slowing property market

One day viewings could woo buyers

■ BY JENNY SANTOS

AS THE property market slows down, open house viewings could be the next big thing for vendors struggling to sell their homes.

Already the norm in the USA and Australia, the trend seems to be catching on here.

Open viewings see vendors throw open their doors on a fixed day, usually at the weekend, inviting potential buyers to view their home without the constraints of having to make a prior appointment.

Traditionally the domain of prestigious houses, the open house is usually seen as an efficient way for estate agents to condense many viewings into one day or to introduce competitive hype between buyers for high demand properties.

However, with a sluggish property market, the 'open house' can be a useful marketing tool for enthusiastic vendors who are prepared to be pro-active in selling their own home. It seems to make sense. Most estate agents are closed at the weekend when a large number of people are free to look at potential homes.

Buyers can wander around the property at their leisure and vendors can prepare for a single public viewing, rather than trying to live in a constant state of readiness for ad-hoc appointments.

I recently made my own foray into open viewings whilst trying to sell my two-bedroom, terraced cottage.

It had been on the market for six weeks with only a sprinkling of interest and one sole viewing.

Belying first impressions, it really is quite spacious inside with a lovely, large rear garden but with the tired phrase 'must be viewed' not doing the trick, frustration led me to arrange an open day.

I had to face the fact that I was inviting not only potential buyers but also local nosey parkers into my home, but I decided I didn't mind on the basis that local gossip can still generate sales.

Despite short notice – three days to be precise – and therefore only limited advertising, between noon and 4pm on the Sunday I had six potential buyers look around.

Obviously, precautions had to be taken with regard to security. Friends helped out and I removed valuables, personal items and keys. Asking interested parties to pre-register with the agent also prevents people wandering in off the street.

Overall, I thought it was a day well spent but as for the results? A second viewing was requested by one potential buyer – I wait with interest.

MOTORS NEWS

Land Rover team has a two-day tough trek

A TEAM from Barretts Land Rover, Ashford, followed some of the world's most adventurous athletes by joining a gruelling competition based upon Land Rover's global G4 Challenge – G4 Trek.

They went to the Land Rover Experience Centre near Ashford to take on teams from other UK dealerships and Barretts Land Rover dealer principal Mark Nicholas said: "The event was a fantastic team-building opportunity and a chance for staff to prove the depth of their product and wider automotive knowledge before sleeping under canvas during the two-day event."

A grand final will be held this weekend.

Small diesels gather favour in used market

USED diesel supermini values have rocketed, with premiums over equivalent petrol models doubling in some cases.

According to market watchers at the trade 'bible', Glass's Guide, two and three-year old diesel examples of best sellers like the Ford Fiesta (pictured) and Peugeot 206, for instance, command £500 more than petrol rivals now when the margin was just £200 a year ago.

The trend is attributed not only to economy, but also to increasing diesel refinement at this end of the market.

Chrysler's retro clout confounds the critics

CRITICS of Chrysler's retro 300C have been contradicted by the executive car's solid secondhand values after two years on the UK market.

A CAP motor trade guide spokesman said: "A two-year-old diesel Chrysler 300C with 30,000 miles on the clock is worth an impressive 67 per cent of the £25,750 it cost when new. In contrast, a BMW 525D of a similar age that cost £31,115 in 2005 is currently worth £19,300 – that's 62 per cent retained value."

NEW LOOK: The Jaguar XK Coupe may leave the traditionalists choking in its wake, but the style changes should keep the brand in the spotlight

Revolution by innovation ousts Jaguar tradition

LISTENING to old guard customers clamouring for tradition got Jaguar into a right old mess.

The marque had been pandering to a vociferous minority that was dying out, instead of looking after the ever-changing dynamic business class that brought Jaguar to power in the 50s and 60s, when innovation was its mantra not tradition.

Fortunately, as Jag seems set to change hands again – Ford is in talks with Indian buyers – innovation is back in vogue and the pivotal model will be next year's XF replacement for the very retro S-Type saloon.

But history may recall that change began with the latest XK Coupe and Convertible models.

We tested a Coupe and, as if to underline change, our car was bright red with the optional alloy-look dashboard rather than 'traditional' wood.

Its sharper lines are a nod to the future too, though there is the briefest backward glance – an oval grille, as worn by the famous D and E-Type sports models.

Apart from that, this car is 'New Jaguar' with distinctive vents on the wings and an aluminium body some 25 per cent lighter than rivals like the equally svelte Mercedes SL and lumpier BMW 6-Series.

This adds to excellent cornering for this muscular-yet-smooth riding car and allows it to sprint to 60 in less than six seconds, and average around 25mpg – almost environmentally-friendly for this market sector.

But that's in 'standard' 300bhp 4.2-litre V8 form as tested here. There is also a loony supercharged 420bhp XKR, but who needs that when the 'cooking version' drives and sounds so good – the V8 delivers the right sound without being intrusive.

The auto gearbox and manual selection via the steering wheel paddles is creamy too, and there are some nice touches inside: push-button starter, classy seats – though the rear ones are useless for carrying even the smallest kids – plus a decent boot for this class of car.

Yes, it would be great if the XK proved to be the moment that innovation rather than tradition launched a Jaguar revival.

USED CAR ROUND-UP: OUR PICK FROM A KEY SECTOR

ALTERNATIVE FAMILY HATCHBACKS

SALES competition on the UK car market is toughest in the family hatchback sector, dominated by big names such as the consistent number one, the Ford Focus and its arch rivals, the Vauxhall Astra and VW Golf. But the sheer demand in this close-fought sector means there are many other strong and attractive alternatives such as the diverse trio we have chosen here: one Spaniard with German underpinnings, a Japanese contender with a 'Made in Britain' stamp and a French contestant with lots of flair plus flexibility.

carsfor Kent.co.uk

SEAT LEON

THIS Spanish spin-off from the previous generation VW Golf is a more likeable car with sleeker styling and a better chassis set-up. The wide nose has an aggressive and sporty look while the five-door body is practical and space efficient. Choice ranges from well-specified entry models to frugal yet lively diesels, right up to the brilliant Cupra R hot hatch. Above all, it is excellent value as a used buy, now that it has been superseded by an all-new version.

PEUGEOT 307

FAMILY hatchbacks have been a Peugeot mainstay for several generations, but the 307 was a more arresting and imposing car than its predecessors. It comes in various body styles: three and five-door hatch, MPV-style SW and estate alternatives and even the sleek Coupe Cabriolet. Engine options include Peugeot's legendary turbo-diesels. With the newly-arrived 308 replacement now appearing in showrooms, a deal on a late-registration 307 could be excellent value.

HONDA CIVIC

FUTURISTIC looks for the latest Civic have made the previous car look very staid – with the notable exception of the Type-R hot hatch version. But the dramatic change has driven values down for the older line-up, making them good value, especially the spacious five-door where the Civic's dash-mounted gearshift is even more effective at visually opening up the front passenger area. Prices are still not the cheapest, but Hondas don't let you down and are British-built at Swindon.

If you can help to ensure the smooth running of our transport operation so that delivery targets are consistently met, we'll give you a lot in return. This role will be to drive the business and manage the new Singleton Environment Centre in Ashford, Kent. This is a new facility, delivered in partnership with Ashford Borough Council, that is to be developed both as a flagship for local environmental action, and for BTCV as an organisation. You will be required to promote the centre to a wide audience and manage the centre's use and activities. This is a new undertaking and so you will be required to develop information systems and report back to the centre's steering group on a regular basis.

EMPLOYMENT IS THE GOAL, EDUCATION IS THE KEY

Rainer City Training Solent has an outstanding track record of engaging with under supported young people. Our entry to employment programme (e2e) achieved a 72% success rate, with learners progressing into work, education or further training. Building on our successes in the Solent area we are now establishing our e2e provision in Kent. We are looking for an educational practitioner who can communicate their passion for learning to our young people.

Learning & Employment Co-ordinator

Up to £25,402

Kent – Swale, Thanet & Medway

Ideal for an experienced teacher or trainer, this peripatetic role involves developing and delivering our E2E programme through community based venues in Swale, Thanet and Medway. You'll induct, guide and support E2E learners – assessing their needs and working with them to establish an appropriate Learning Plan. Having done so, you'll then provide training, monitor progress and forge links with other agencies involved in programme delivery.

To meet this challenge, you'll need qualifications in such areas as teaching, training and counselling in the development of learning. An understanding of NVQs and Key Skills is important too, as is the ability to record information. Crucially, you must also be able to communicate with, and relate to, young adults – particularly those who are under supported.

BELIEVING IN YOUNG PEOPLE

Successful candidates will be required to consent to checks by the Criminal Records Bureau and like the idea of service users having a say in their appointment.

Diversity is our strength. Could you make us stronger?

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Constructive lessons in building a better future

STUDENTS were given the chance to build bridges with the construction industry during a week-long event.

The 33 full and part-time undergraduates from the University of Greenwich at Medway's civil engineering course were set the task of creating a scale model of the Millennium Galleries in Sheffield.

The students got involved in every aspect of the process, from planning and designing their models, to digging trenches and laying foundations, as well as constructing the actual buildings.

The event was held at the National Construction College in Norfolk in association with leading building firm Byrne Brothers, and design and engineering consultants Atkins.

Scheme thinks straight out of the box, literally

AN AWARD-winning organic box scheme has been extended to cover homes and businesses in Medway.

Riverford Home Delivery, set up by Maidstone couple Andrew and Sam Garnham, started out by delivering boxes of fresh organic vegetables to just 26 homes in Maidstone, but now supplies more than 500 homes in mid Kent.

It also now offers deliveries of well-hung meat too.

Until now the scheme has not covered Medway, but Andrew and Gilly Stowe, from Rochester, have joined the company to deliver straight to your door.

For more details call 01634 401441 or visit www.riverford.co.uk

Make sure you cash in on speedy payments

RECENT postal strikes, turbulence in the banking system and the financial strains of the holiday season make it more important than ever for Kent companies to keep an eye on cash flow, warns Business Link.

According to their research, late payment from customers is a major problem for nearly one in five (19 per cent) Kent companies.

Business Link advisor Ian Netherton said: "Money is no use to a business until it is in the bank – poor cash flow that is the biggest single killer of otherwise viable businesses."

NATURAL BEAUTY: The tourism industry needs to protect and contribute to stunning countryside like this near Wye in order to encourage visitors and ensure a long-term future

Time to go green and win gold in tourism

■ BY JON COATES

BUSINESSES have been urged to cash in on the growing market in eco-friendly tourism.

Visitor attractions, hotels, bed and breakfasts, and working farms in Kent can save money through energy conservation, efficient water use, and cutting down on waste.

In doing so, they will boost their appeal to people looking to enjoy holidays, walks or leisure activities without spoiling our beautiful countryside.

The nationally-recognised Green Tourism Business Scheme provides a framework for companies to implement good environmental practice.

Grants and support are available to businesses in the leisure and tourism industry wanting to become more sustainable.

As part of the scheme, ventures are assessed every two years on 120 different measures of best practice.

There are three compulsory sections and companies achieving three successes in each of these get bronze awards, those meeting four get silver and those achieving five gold.

So far 17 businesses in Kent have gained

SUCCESS: Brenley Farm at Boughton – a silver award winner for its bed and breakfast on a working farm accreditation, with two getting gold awards, ten achieving silver and five bronze.

Alkham Court at South Alkham, near Dover, which offers bed and breakfast on a working farm, and Palace Farm Hostel at Doddington, near Faversham, which offers family rooms on a working farm, both achieved gold status.

Silver award winners include Kent Gliding Club at Challock, near Ashford, Tanner Farm at Marden, a caravan and camping park, and Great Field Farm at Stelling Minnis, near Canterbury, which offers bed and breakfast.

Two workshops have been organised by Kent Downs and Natural East Kent Sustainable Tourism Project to help business leaders understand the scheme and give advice on how to join it.

The day-long events will take place at Kent Showground in Detling, near Maidstone, on Wednesday, November 28, and at Minster Village Hall in Thanet, the day after.

Organisers hope to hold more workshops around the county at later dates.

Fran Warrington, head of Kent Tourism, said: "Businesses in our sector can no longer afford to ignore environmental issues."

"We have to work together so that Kent is well placed to take advantage of the growing green tourism market, as well as ensuring the sustainability of our own businesses and the sector as a whole."

For more details about the scheme and workshops call Sarah Loftus on 01303 815174.

Trio jump into medal spot

THREE members of Jumpers Rebound Centre in Gillingham came home last week after winning bronze at the World Trampoline Championships in Canada.

Michael Scott-Beaulieu, Matthew and Dominic Swaffer were part of the Great Britain double mini team which finished third in Quebec City.

Rainham's Gary Smith, who coaches at Jumpers, missed out on Olympic qualification in the individual trampoline event with 32nd place.

He said: "I am disappointed because the last three years I have been training to get to Beijing. But my score was the highest I have ever achieved as a senior, it's just the standard was so high."

Gillingham striker Delroy Facey talks about life at Priestfield Stadium

Chats grab first point with draw

CHATHAM Town recorded their first point for three league games after a goal-less stalemate with Leatherhead.

Both sides were low on confidence after recent defeats and it showed in a flat game at Maidstone Road.

Darren Smith came closest to breaking the deadlock twice in the first half.

The midfielder smashed a 30-yard free-kick against the crossbar and minutes later saw his snap shot acrobatically tipped over by the visiting goalkeeper.

Leatherhead hit the woodwork in a dour second period as both sides appeared to settle for a draw.

The point took the Chats above Whitstable Town into 16th in Ryman Division One South.

Phil Miles' side now face a tough run of fixtures with their next four league games away from home, starting at Whyteleafe on Saturday.

Chatham played Folkestone Invicta in a Kent Senior Cup tie last night. For the full report see www.yourmedway.co.uk.

Disappointment at Gills' average performance

NEW Gillingham manager Mark Stimson was left frustrated after witnessing his side crash out of the FA Cup against a side from League Two.

Stimson said he felt let down by the players, who were unable to close out the victory after taking a 1-0 lead into half-time.

Dave Graham's goal, from a Nicky Southall cross, gave the Gills the start they needed but they never pushed on and Barnet came at them hard in the second half so the equaliser was always on the cards.

It finally arrived on 61 minutes when Simon Royce failed to clear a cross and Barnet striker Ismael Yakubu pounced to nod home.

Within a couple of minutes, the Bees took the lead when former Gravesend and Northfleet striker Liam Hatch bundled the ball in at the far post.

The Gills had a chance to get back in the game on 65 minutes, but Delroy Facey's shot on the turn was blocked by the defence.

After the game Stimson said that he still needs to look at his whole squad and is planning to make changes after the dismal show at Underhill.

He told the club's website: "I'm very disappointed because we were not good enough. I'm a very proud person and feel let down, as I'm sure the supporters do too. We should have won the game. You don't concede two goals to an average side like Barnet.

"A few of our players need to look in the mirror and ask themselves if they are doing enough. Are they putting in good enough shift, because I'm not happy."

Gillingham were left to rue the loss of influential striker Chris Dickson, who was cup-tied for the game and Stimson took the decision to leave out captain Andrew Crofts in favour of veteran Steve Lomas.

Stimson said: "Crofts understood my position and we had a positive chat. He hasn't been at his best in recent matches and he wasn't honest enough to admit that."

The Gills boss also handed a debut to striker Luke Freeman, who in the process became the club's youngest ever player. He came on as a second half substitute and at 15 years and 233 days, he beat the record held by Billy Hughes when he made his Gills bow in 1976 at the age of 15 years and 259 days.

The youngster said he was shocked to be included in the squad for the game: "It was a special moment for me and one I will always remember."

Gills were in action in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy against Dagenham & Redbridge last night. For a match report log onto yourmedway.co.uk.

ON TOP: Holcombe kept up their winning start to the season with a 5-1 win

Seven-in-a-row win for Hol

HOLCOMBE Ladies' first team overcame a flat first-half to maintain their 100 per cent start to the season, after a 5-1 victory away against Chelmsford 2s.

With the game goalless at half-time, Holcombe's run of seven successive victories looked to be under threat, but the second half saw the side take maximum points.

Team manager Mike Haines was unhappy with the start but content to come away with another win.

He said: "We were a bit lacklustre to begin with, you always think this is going to be the day it comes unstuck but we've a very good side that understands what is needed to up their game.

Holcombe 5 Chelmsford 1

"Mentally we were not at the races, but we had a stiff talk at half-time and went on to play an excellent second half."

Heidi Casey opened the scoring from a short corner, before the prolific Candice Forwood scored a hat-trick to put the game beyond the hosts.

Jennie Hoyte rounded off the scoring for Holcombe, who kept their five-point lead at the top of the East Women's Premier League.

The side have a decent chance of making it nine in a row when they play bottom side Ipswich 2s at Holcombe Park on Saturday.

Holcombe's men's 1st XI kept up their challenge at the top of the National South Division with a 2-2 draw with Oxted on Sunday.

The side were handed a tough match when the draw for the quarter-finals of the EH Cup were made last week, and they were paired with Beeston, who are currently second in the Premier League.

Haines said: "We are quietly thinking we could give them a good game if we can raise our standards - we have enough quality to do that."

The tie will be played at Holcombe Park on February 24.

Footie website set to buy Ebbsfleet

■ BY DAVID PRITCHARD

EBBSFLEET United looks set to be taken over by 20,000 people who signed up to a website.

In the first move of its kind, the footie fans each paid £35 to raise enough cash for a takeover bid.

The original idea was to try and buy a club like Leeds United or Nottingham Forest, but both were considered too deeply in debt.

Fleet bosses have offered members of MyFootballClub.co.uk the chance to take a controlling interest in the club to clear their debts.

But if it goes ahead it will mean every one of the 20,000 new fans will have a say in transfer and team decisions.

The club confirmed they approached the maverick website several weeks ago and said yesterday a deal has been agreed in principle.

Fleet chairman Jason Botley welcomed the move, which will help pay off the club's debts.

He said: "The board, Liam Daish and his coaching staff, club employees and myself are united in believing this is great opportunity for Ebbsfleet United. This extra finance and support will enable our club to progress."

The website was set up earlier this year with the aim of giving fans a chance to run their own club. Each member pays £35 to buy a share, with more than £700,000 raised in 11 weeks.

Nine clubs approached MyFootballClub with offers to sell controlling stakes. Ebbsfleet was chosen because of its small debts, low rent at its Stonebridge Road ground and the proximity to major road and rail networks.

Manager Liam Daish, who will remain at the club, said: "Everyone has worked wonders to get this club in the top half of the Conference. We all agree the club needs something extra to take it to the next step."

"As a football fan, I think the MyFootballClub idea is fantastic. And as the coach, I look forward to the challenge of working with thousands of members to produce a winning team. Alan Kimble and myself are 100 per cent committed to making this work."

Mos string of wins continues

ON TARGET: Andy Smith scored eight goals in two games for Invicta

INVICTA Dynamos maintained their 100 per cent league record with back-to-back away wins against Haringey Greyhounds and Slough Hawks last weekend.

The Mos beat the Greyhounds 9-4 on Saturday, before crushing the Hawks 15-2 a day later to move up to mid-table in the ENIHL South B.

Against the Hawks, Joe Allen and Tim Smith were both sent to the sin bin in the first minute for slashing, which put the visitors on the back foot early on.

Invicta killed off the five-on-three powerplay and were 5-0 up by the end of the first period.

The game was over after three minutes of the second period, in which time the Mos had increased their lead to 10-0. Andy Smith top-scored with five goals for the visitors as they ran out comfortable winners against a ragged Slough team.

Dynamos also started second best 24 hours earlier, as Haringey scored twice in the first five minutes. The Greyhounds barely mustered a meaningful attack at the Ice Bowl in the ENIHL Cup a fortnight previously, but they played with more intent second time around.

With six of the first team squad missing, Dynamos gradually played their way back into the game. Goals from Smith and Ken Forshee levelled the score 2-2 by the end of the first period.

They took a competitive second period 4-2, before consolidating their lead by the end with three unanswered goals in the final period as Haringey tired. With three goals, Smith again top-scored.

Dynamos resume ENIHL Cup action this weekend, with an away game against Streatham Redskins on Sunday. Both teams have a 100 per cent record in the group, so the result could decide who wins the division.

SPORT IN BRIEF

Anchorians closing goal is enough to reach top

A GOAL in the final five minutes earned Gillingham Anchorians Ladies' first team a point against Brentwood which sent them to the top of the East Division Two table.

Player-of-the-match Liz Kirk grabbed the goal on 65 minutes to make it 2-2 after Nell Sankey had opened the scoring.

Anchs are top on goal difference in the tight division, where one point separates the top four sides.

The team host the league's bottom side, Old de Ferrians on Saturday.

Last minute win puts Lordswood in third place

LORDSWOOD RFC climbed to third in London South East 3 with a dramatic one-point win over Aylesford Bulls on Saturday.

The hosts were under pressure for long periods and trailed 28-22 going into the final minute, before Lordswood snatched an interception try. The conversion put them one point ahead with the last kick of the game.

After three consecutive wins, the team lie two points behind league leaders Gravesend. They host Old Mid-Whitgiftians in their next league fixture on November 24.

Surprise draw is enough to clear bottom at Eden Park

LORDSWOOD FC earned one of their best results of the season with a 1-1 draw against Beckenham Town.

Scott Buckle cancelled out Theo Fairweather-Johnson's second minute strike as Lordswood became only the second team this season to avoid defeat at Beckenham's Eden Park Avenue.

It was Lordswood's first draw of the season and put them five points clear of the Premier League's bottom side, Sporting Bengal United, who Lordswood played in a Premier Division Cup game last night.

Priestfield to host Ghana in under-18s international

THE Priestfield Stadium is to stage an international match as England under-18s take on Ghana.

The game is scheduled for next Tuesday, and England coach Brian Eastwick will be hoping for a positive result as his side plays its first game after going out in the quarter-finals of the under-17 World Cup in Korea.

The international will be the second one held at Gillingham's Priestfield Stadium this year after the women's side played in May.

Kick-off is at 7.30pm.
